Session #: 106365

Session name: CPI: Initial and Refresher Training

Description: This 12-hour training course, geared toward educational staff, is for certification through the Crisis Prevention Institute. The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training Program is a comprehensive crisis management system based on the philosophy of providing the best care, welfare, safety, and security for staff and those in their care. Participants will be trained to recognize the warning signs that often precede student escalation into crisis, learn verbal de-escalation techniques, and practice techniques to provide for student safety and security. Participants must complete all exercises and demonstrate required competency in this two-day workshop to receive certification from the Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI). Participants are expected to meet both written and physical standards.

Special instructions: *you will need to attend BOTH days to receive a certification or re-certification in this course*
Please wear closed toe shoes and dress casually. Please note that this training requires physical activity for physical interventions including standing, walking, bending, twisting, squatting reaching and grasping. If you are unable to participate in the physical activities your certification will reflect only the modules completed.

Session #: 106871

Session name: ONLINE: Managing Emotional Mayhem Book Study

Description: This book study is based on Dr. Becky Bailey's 20 years of research in early childhood and developmental psychology. She tells us "self-regulation is the ability to manage emotional upset and behavior. The way adults handle emotional upset when children are throwing fits, backtalking, name-calling, being defiant and withdrawing will either foster or inhibit their ability to develop self-regulation." Through this book study, we will take a journey together to incorporate self-regulation into our early childhood classrooms. We will explore how to develop our own self-regulatory skills, identify emotional triggers, respond to children's acting out, and coach children to use the five-step regulation process.

Special instructions: Book is NOT provided.

We have found the cheapest vendor for the book is at the Conscious Discipline website. Click here: <https://bit.ly/2CDI4Fq> to be directed to the book directly.

NOTE** This is a self-paced class through Google Classroom that will only be run for 1 month.

Assignments will be completed and turned in through the Google Classroom platform.

AISD users may need to register for this class using a PERSONAL email account. Registration closes June 2 at 10:30 AM.

Session #: 106932

Session name: Pathway to Greatness for EL Newcomers

Description: Our cultural 'lenses' significantly impact our daily interaction with our students. Achievement of all students in our classrooms increases when we, as teachers, take into consideration not only students' cultural narratives and norms, but ours as well. Cultural intelligence and cultural competence can be learned, practiced, and systemically implemented to better serve diverse students, their families, and their communities. The framework presented in this workshop utilizes research, best practices, and evidence-based teaching strategies to provide an innovative approach for designing and implementing culturally responsive instruction, while also emphasizing the importance of self-reflection to clearly define who we, the educators, are. In knowing how to draw from both our own backgrounds and theirs, we can more effectively serve students from ethnically, linguistically, and socioeconomically diverse backgrounds.

Session #: 106587

Session name: Using Curriculum Based Measurement for Progress Monitoring

Description: Curriculum Based Measurement is a research based method of gathering data on a student's progress in reading, math, and writing foundational skills. Most CBM probes can be administered in 1 to 3 minutes, which makes them very efficient measures. CBM can be used for progress monitoring in an RTI system as well as to measure progress on IEP goals. Participants will have an opportunity to explore free online resources, such as EasyCBM and Intervention Central to determine what will work best for their students.

This is not an indepth training on RTI; however, the basics of Universal Screening/baseline data gathering will be reviewed, as well as using CBM data to determine which "tier" of intervention is appropriate.

Special instructions: This is a repeat of the April 15th CBM Progress Monitoring workshop.

Please bring a device to explore free online resources.

Session #: 106811

Session name: Fine Arts - Altered Books, Then and NOW

Description: Altered books have existed for decades. They appealed to our desire to repurpose and recycle and gave a cheap, portable way to journal and explore art techniques. They still perform these functions, but the always inventive and resourceful human has found increasing uses for the altered book. Come explore some of the latest methods and educational benefits to the altered book in any classroom, on any level. Altered books can provide a fresh assessment strategy in a variety of subject areas: language art, history, science, math, social studies, visual art, and therapy.

Special instructions: Bring a hardback book that has 300+ pages and any art materials that you might want to use. (Additional materials will be provided.) We would appreciate any old magazines to cut pictures out of, as well.

Session #: 106830

Session name: SUMMER BLAST: Things I Learned the Hard Way: Practical, Effective Behavioral Interventions

Description: Ann Hughes-"Things I Learned the Hard Way: Practical, Effective Behavioral Interventions for Children/Youth with Oppositional, Defiant, Anxious & Unmotivated Behaviors."

Educators today frequently encounter children/youth who have behavioral, emotional and/or mental health challenges. This training focuses on practical, effective, evidence-based behavioral supports and intervention strategies for those who are mad, sad and/or unmotivated. Participants will learn class-wide, and individualized student level interventions that have been tried, tested and successful in both general education and special education settings. Getting behind and understanding behavior, treating root causes, not just symptoms and matching intervention type and intensity with the function of a behavior to truly impact and change students behavior will be an area of focus.

Session #: 106779

Session name: PBL with Texas Performance Standards Projects

Description: Project Based Learning utilizing the Texas Performance Standards Projects that are written for gifted learners, but work for ALL students. TPSP is now available in Spanish!

The Texas Performance Standards Project fulfills the needs of gifted students. It is also an option to meet the state requirements for an accountability measure for gifted students, which is now a state law. Participants will learn how to create a task within the classroom, which includes curriculum that is normally taught each year. The TPSP is a research-based curriculum to guide students through individual research projects with a product and presentation at the end of the task.

Session #: 106655

Session name: The Neuropsychology of Reading Disorders: An Introduction to the FAR

Description: Steven G. Feifer, D. Ed. is a renowned speaker and author in the field of neuropsychology, and has authored seven books on learning and emotional disorders in children. He has 20 years of experience as a school psychologist and won the Maryland School Psychologist of the Year award in 2008.

This workshop will examine reading from a brain-based educational perspective and discuss current literacy trends in the United States. The primary focus of the presentation will be to differentiate “dyslexia” from other reading disorders, as well as to classify developmental reading disorders into four distinct subtypes. Dr. Feifer will introduce a brain-behavior model of reading by examining specific neural circuits that underscore phonological development, orthographic development, and comprehension skills. There will be a discussion matching each reading disorders’ subtype with scores of evidence-based interventions.

Session #: 106784

Session name: Day 4 of 30 Hour GT Foundational Training - Creative/Critical Thinking and the TPSP

Description: This is the fourth of five pieces of training that comprise the 30 hours of G/T training required of teachers that are responsible for providing services to gifted learners. Although not every district specifically provides services for the creatively gifted, it is important to understand that creative and critical thinking patterns become a unique characteristic of gifted learners. Participants will also look at advanced level projects and how the Texas Performance Standards Projects can be used to develop advanced projects.

If it has been more than five years since you have taken the 30-hour training, then you may count this as a six-hour update.

Special instructions: Participants are encouraged to bring a laptop or similar device.

Session #: 106938

Session name: Lead4ward Intervention for All

Description: Campuses accommodate a wide range of student abilities in their classrooms. As students struggle with learning, teachers and PLCs need structures and strategies to meet the unique learning needs of particular students. In this class, campus leaders and teacher leaders learn how to leverage local assessment data in the moment, at the end of instruction, and over time to plan intervention that supports all students. We will explore the intervention concept of “pulling the string” and how it can ensure that no one goes backwards.

This training is your solution for understanding the role intervention plays before, during, and after instruction; addressing intervention in the general classroom at a subcluster level; and identifying manageable ways to respond to all kids that need intervention.

Session #: 107040

Session name: Interpretation and Storytelling

Description: The Grace Museum is thrilled to offer a two-day FREE multi-disciplinary workshop with support from Humanities Texas and the National Endowment for the Humanities. This workshop will feature artist Terry Hays, and his current exhibition Cosmic Gardens, as well as ACU professors Drs. Kelly and Jeremy Elliott.

Day one artist Terry Hays will feature historical, cultural and contemporary iconography integrations with hands-on art making. He will discuss work that brings together historic cultural influences. There is NO art ability needed.

Day two Drs. Kelly and Jeremy Elliott will guide us through historical context to the artwork and a larger worldview to forge connections across cultures. The day will end by creating handmade journals and elements of narrative and historical art interpretive writing.

Our partners are covering the $50 registration fee making the class free to you.

Special instructions: This workshop will be located at The Grace Museum, 102 Cypress Street, Abilene. Any questions can be directed to Kathryn Mitchell at The Grace. 325-673-4587

Session #: 106789

Session name: ONLINE Day 4 of 30 Hour GT Training - Creative/Critical Thinking

Description: This is the fourth of five pieces of training that comprise the 30 hours of G/T training required of teachers that are responsible for providing services to gifted learners. Although not every district specifically provides services for the creatively gifted, it is important to understand that creative and critical thinking patterns become a unique characteristic of gifted learners. Participants will also look at advanced level projects and how the Texas Performance Standards Projects can be used to develop advanced projects.

This is a self-paced seven-day course that must be started by the fourth day of class and completed by the seventh. (July 1-7) Instructions on getting started will be sent from the course facilitator, Phyllis Baum.

Special instructions: If it has been more than five years since you have taken the 30-hour training, then you may count this as a six-hour update.

Session #: 107036

Session name: Online Study - Choose Your Own GT Adventure!

Description: What do you plan to execute/plan/create for your gifted learners next year that is going to make a difference in your classroom?

Just like our students, we are propelled by our own interests and strengths. It is my goal to move teachers from being compliant consumers of PD to empowered innovators and leaders. This is your invitation to look at a “passion project” of your choice. You can choose a topic related to gifted education and decide on your own personalized learning plan. You can process the information in a way that resonates with your own learning.

Please submit the following information for review before starting your project to ngalle@esc14.net:

Project topic proposal

Anticipated learnings

Plan to complete work and how you can demonstrate new learnings/understandings

Special instructions: Course will be open through all of July. Participants need to submit a proposal before starting project, receive permission for project, and complete study prior to the end of July. This is a six hour credit course, so please plan to spend the required number of hours.

Session #: 106693

Session name: Teaching To Kill a Mockingbird and other Novels

Description: Join Donna Scherr for a great day of collaboration around teaching secondary novels, using To Kill a Mockingbird as a mentor text. You will be treated to great ideas from the February 21 Humanities Texas workshop in Dallas. Even if you have not read or taught this novel, no need to worry. We'll explore different ways to teach novels. 5th grade teachers are invited, but we will spend a little time focusing on tough issues such as how to handle controversial language. This workshop will be from 8:30-2:30, with teachers presenting their pre-work at morning roundtables. Teachers must share their top three tips for teaching a novel in a 5 minute roundtable to earn 6 hours that day. However, teachers can earn the hour after the workshop and an additional 6 hours for additional work over the summer. Teachers should bring 10 copies of any handout. Please bring a digital device to access TEXQuest. If you are unfamiliar, contact your librarian for access!!!! Don't miss!

Special instructions: Bring any tool to help you and tools to show teachers of what you have done with a novel. Participants will be invited to a Google Classroom to post their best three ideas for teaching a novel. Teachers will share their ideas at a round table session from 8:30-9:00. Teachers can bring about 10 copies of any handout. And most importantly, bring a digital device so you can access various resources and your TEXQuest sign-in from your librarian!

Candidates will create and manage professional documents of four pages or more for a variety of specialized purposes and situations. They will customize their Word environments to meet project needs, and to enhance productivity. Examples of expert-level documents include a business plan, a research paper, a book, a specialized brochure, and a mass mailing. Candidate roles may include editors, project managers, business information workers, educators and others.

Special instructions: The presenter will send you a welcome letter with instructions of what to do before the day of the workshop. Please complete all that is required so you will be prepared for the day. LIMITED SPACE!!

Session #: 106934

Session name: Texas Lesson Study

Description: Lesson Study is a FREE non-traditional professional development opportunity. Teams of teachers come together to research and develop a unit focusing on an inquiry-based lesson that will be videoed and posted on the Texas Gateway. Knowing that the ELA/R TEKS are going to be implemented for K-8 starting in the Fall, this would be a great opportunity to work with other ELA/R teachers on great lessons. Sign-up is for all Core Content areas, as well. This is a four-day workshop with possible follow-up meetings during the school year to prepare the lesson to be taught to students. First time participants will receive a $200 stipend upon completion. Lesson Study is centered around increasing student engagement and interaction and makes a great T-TESS lesson.

Special instructions: You will need to bring a laptop, textbook, and note-taking materials. Please have a Google account attached to the email you are signing up with. If you want more information or have questions, contact Gail Brown at gbrown@esc14.net or 325-675-8644.

Session #: 106818

Session name: "What is Career Ready?"/Employability Framework

Description: Successful careers are built on solid personal and interpersonal skills. Defining, measuring, and building these skills— even naming them— can be challenging. In an effort to leverage and connect the efforts of policy makers, educators, and employers, the U.S. Department of Education compiled the Employability Skills Framework and developed related tools, media and resources. We will actively engage in the Framework and build activities to strengthen students skills in the school environment. Texas Workforce Commission will also be part of the training to introduce how to use labor market information in the classroom.

Session #: 106903

Session name: Advancing Educational Leadership (AEL)

Description: Advancing Educational Leadership (AEL) is organized to facilitate participants' recognition of the connections and relationships between and among the major functions of school leadership. AEL features five conceptual themes: creating a positive school culture; establishing and sustaining vision, mission, and goals; developing self and others; improving instruction; and managing data and processes.

The seven strands of AEL align to the principal standards established by TEA. As compared to the five conceptual themes of AEL, the seven strands of AEL are skills that successful school leaders must know and be able to do. These seven strands include team building; effective conferencing; conflict resolution; goal setting; data gathering and analysis; teacher coaching and mentoring; and curriculum.

Special instructions: AEL is a co-requisite (must be completed prior to conducting T-TESS observations) for T-TESS appraiser training.

Session #: 106654

Session name: NEW STREAMLINED SOCIAL STUDIES TEKS, 3-5

Description: The new streamlined social studies TEKS for middle school and high school will be effective on August 1, 2019, and implemented in classrooms beginning with the 2019-2020 school year. The streamlined social studies TEKS for kindergarten-grade 5 will be effective on August 1, 2020, and implemented in classrooms beginning with the 2020-2021 school year. Come find out what you need to know to effectively implement your social studies standards in the classroom.

Since we leave at 2:30, you will have the chance to earn your extra hour of credit by reading through the new TEKS for your grade level and coming ready to independently write and talk about them. You can also gain the hour later in the Google Classroom. See the link below to access your new standards.

Session #: 106799

Session name: Social and Emotional Learning of GT Students: Attending to the Affect

Description: Gifted children often demonstrate greater maturity in some domains over others, and may be at greater risk for specific kinds of social-emotional difficulties if their needs are not met.

These aspects may include heightened awareness, anxiety, perfectionism, stress, issues with peer relationships, and concerns with identity and fit. Educators need to stay in tune with gifted learners' needs and help shape a strong framework for social-emotional health.

During this workshop, participants will look at the social and emotional needs of gifted and talented students and the unique challenges that influence their needs. This day will also provide strategies that may be used to empower gifted learners to effectively deal with these challenges.

Special instructions: Please bring a device.

Session #: 106906

Session name: Texas Teacher Evaluation and Support System (T-TESS)

Description: The Texas Teacher Evaluation and Support System (T-TESS) is the state-recommended appraisal system designed to support teachers in their professional development and help them to grow and improve as educators. This three-day T-TESS training is a prerequisite for the online T-TESS certification test required for all teacher appraisers. Appraisers must also possess an ILD (Instructional Leadership Development) OR an AEL (Advancing Educational Leadership) certificate as a co-requisite to T-TESS certification.

Participants will become familiar with the T-TESS process to continue improving professional practices of teachers. Participants will move from the procedural to conceptual understanding of how the domains, dimensions, descriptors, and performance levels of the T-TESS rubric apply to the appraisers' roles and responsibilities.

Participants must attend the entire three-day training to receive authorization to take the T-TESS online certification test.
