Fall 2018-19 Workshops

Session #: 106029

Session name: 32nd Gathering of Professionals "Vocabulary: The Secret in Academic Achievement"

Description: Amy Benjamin is a nationally recognized consultant, teacher, and author specializing in improving student performance through literacy in all subject areas. A few titles authored by Amy Benjamin include: "Grammar Alive! A Guide for Teachers" as well as "But I'm Not a Reading Teacher: Strategies for Literacy Instruction in the Content Areas."

Understanding and being able to use academic vocabulary is crucial to student success in school. How do words get learned and stay learned? What words should be "caught, not taught" through implicit instruction? What are the best research-based approaches that teachers can use to teach technical terms? Amy Benjamin will share her "4Es" of explicit and implicit vocabulary instruction: exposure, exploration, engagement, and energy. She will demonstrate the use of word stories, visuals, meaningful repetition, morphology, and interesting word-learning activities that make word-learning accessible and memorable for all students.

Special instructions: Preregistration is required. Registration is $25. Lunch is included. No telephone registrations accepted. Special education personnel should check with their Special Education Directors before submitting individual fees. No refunds. Deadline is November 29, 2018.

Description: Stuttering in preschool and young school-age children can be one of the more challenging disorders for SLPs to treat. Many clinicians are uncertain about which children need treatment and about what therapy techniques help children overcome their difficulties with fluency. This webinar will address those concerns by providing specific examples of assessment strategies, treatment goals, and therapy activities that can be immediately used in treatment. Particular attention will be paid to strategies for working with parents and to methods for helping children develop healthy, appropriate attitudes towards their communication skills.

Special instructions: This is a webinar designed for SLPs and SLP-As and can be accessed through any computer with internet. After registering through PITStop, a few days prior to the webinar, a link will be sent to you for registration through the webinar program. You must register to "reserve your seat." Session #: 106341

Session name: SLP Webinar 5: School-Age Stuttering Therapy: A Practical Approach

Description: School-age children who stutter can face many challenges, including negative emotional reactions to stuttering, difficulties participating in classroom activities, and limitations while interacting with peers. Unfortunately, many SLPs report that they are not confident in their ability to help children deal with these consequences of stuttering. This webinar will provide clinicians with applicable, practical strategies for helping school-age children and adolescents who stutter overcome the problems associated with stuttering. The presentation will include: guidelines for assessment that support treatment recommendations and goal-writing, specific recommendations about how to prepare children for therapy to ensure success, and examples of treatment strategies and activities designed to help children improve their fluency, reduce their negative reactions to stuttering, educate others about stuttering, and communicate effectively across speaking situations.

Special instructions: This is a webinar designed for SLPs and SLP-As and can be accessed through any computer with internet. After registering through PITStop, a few days prior to the webinar, a link will be sent to you for registration through the webinar program. You must register to "reserve your seat." PLEASE REGISTER PRIOR TO THE DAY OF THE WEBINAR.

Session #: 106367

Session name: CPI: Initial and Refresher Training

Description: This 12-hour training course, geared toward educational staff, is for certification through the Crisis Prevention Institute. The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training Program is a comprehensive crisis management system based on the philosophy of providing the best care, welfare, safety, and security for staff and those in their care. Participants will be trained to recognize the warning signs that often precede student escalation into crisis, learn verbal de-escalation techniques, and practice techniques to provide for student safety and security. Participants must complete all exercises and demonstrate required competency in this two-day workshop to receive certification from the Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI). Participants are expected to meet both written and physical standards.

Special instructions: you will need to attend BOTH days to receive a certification or re-certification in this course
Please wear closed toe shoes and dress casually. Please note that this training requires physical activity for physical interventions including standing, walking, bending, twisting, squatting reaching and grasping. If you are unable to participate in the physical activities your certification will reflect only the modules completed.

Session #: 106360

Session name: Makerspace = Creativity + TEKS

Description: Makerspace is where creativity meets the TEKS! The R14 Service Station provides a place to move beyond consumption to explore creation through various tools, both high and low tech, that provoke inquiry. Participants in this session can learn how to promote learning through making in their own classrooms using a variety of materials. Come experience drone flight, film a commercial on a tropical beach, paint a masterpiece and sign multiple copies, code a robot to measure perimeter, and enter a virtual world of wonder. (NOTE: many items can be reserved for use in your classroom or you can schedule a time to bring students to the Service Station as a learning adventure.)

Spring 2018-19 Workshops

Session #: 106365

Session name: CPI: Initial and Refresher Training

Description: This 12-hour training course, geared toward educational staff, is for certification through the Crisis Prevention Institute. The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training Program is a comprehensive crisis management system based on the philosophy of providing the best care, welfare, safety, and security for staff and those in their care. Participants will be trained to recognize the warning signs that often precede student escalation into crisis, learn verbal de-escalation techniques, and practice techniques to provide for student safety and security. Participants must complete all exercises and demonstrate required competency in this two-day workshop to receive certification from the Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI). Participants are expected to meet both written and physical standards.

Special instructions: you will need to attend BOTH days to receive a certification or re-certification in this course
Please wear closed toe shoes and dress casually. Please note that this training requires physical activity for physical interventions including standing, walking, bending, twisting, squatting reaching and grasping. If you are unable to participate in the physical activities your certification will reflect only the modules completed.
